

In association with

Drumming and Music Workshops

Our drumming and music workshops are for young people and adults with disabilities or autism, aged 16 and over. They are facilitated by professional musician Mark Cozens.

Cost is just £5 per person - bring your own support (PAs/carers free).

Interested?

Sessions take place on Thursdays from 4.30-6.30pm at Unit 2 The Edge, Pottery Terrace, Wigan, WN3 5AB.

To book, phone 01942 735426 or email info.mtwadvoc@gmail.com

Music therapy is a psychological therapy that aims to create positive changes in emotional wellbeing and communication through the engagement in live musical interaction.

It's based on the idea that all individuals have the ability to respond to music and sound and that this can lead to positive changes in behaviour and improved social and communication skills, especially in people with autism.